Nice, March 21.

AN Officer ſent by Admiral Medley to Baron de Launay, Commandant of the Fort of Villa Franca, has brought the News, that Yeſterday the Engliſh took, off of Monaco, fifteen Veſſels with French Troops on board, bound from Toulon to Genoa. Two others had eſcaped into the Harbour of Monaco; and it was ſuppoſed that the reſt, who were entirely diſperſed, would endeavour to get back to ſome Port in France. An Engliſh Captain, arrived in this Town ſince, from on board the Squadron, gives the ſame Account, as an Eye Witneſs; and adds, that by the Poſitions of the Squadron, they ſhould give a good Account of the reſt. By this Officer's Report, the whole Convoy amounted to between thirty and forty Veſſels of all Sizes.

Venice, March 24, N. S. On the 18th Inſtant Feldt Marſhal Schulemburg's Body was inter'd with great Military Pomp, under one of the Baſtions of Verona; and the Senate, in Acknowledgment of his Services to the State, particularly his memorable Defence of Corfu, have decreed him a magnificent Monument to be erected in the Arſenal at the publick Expence. Count George Schulemburg, the Marſhal's Heir, is daily expected from Vienna. We have no News from the Auſtrian Army. The Letters from Genoa are of the 11th, but contain nothing remarkable, except M. Lomellini and M. Doria being diſpatched to Antibes, to ſolicit and haſten the Succours they expect from France.

Turin, March 26, N. S. By Letters received from Savona and Villa Franca, there is an Account, that the French Embarkation from Marſeilles and Toulon, having on board 6000 Men, deſigned to reinforce and aſſiſt the Genoeſe, put to Sea for the ſecond Time on the 16th or 17th Inſtant; that the Tranſports in their Paſſage fell in, about the 20th, with ſome Engliſh Ships cruizing in thoſe Parts; that at leaſt 14 or 15 have been taken, about 900 Priſoners already made, and that the reſt of the Convoy were cloſely purſued by the ſaid Men of War.

Hague, April 4, N. S. We learn from Aix, that Marſhal Belleiſle ſet out the 22d paſt for Verſailles, having left the Command in Provence to the Chevalier his Brother; The Marquis de la Mina was ſet out from Montpellier to meet the Marſhal upon the Road. One of the Men of War that ſailed from Marſeilles, as Convoy to the Troops intended for Genoa, on the 17th Inſtant having ſprung a Maſt, the ſame Day anchored with the Tranſports in Toulon Road; but ſoon after the Commanding Officer at Toulon ſent Orders to the Tranſports to ſail under Convoy of the Frigat the Flora. The Man of War was to follow as ſoon as ſhe had got a new Maſt.

Hague, April 4, N. S. By Yeſterday's Letters from Bruſſels, Marſhal Saxe arrived there the Day before, and daily expected Count Lowendahl thither, to concert with him about their Operations. The French heavy Artillery was getting ready with all Speed; and they were erecting thirty Ovens at Louvain.

Rotterdam, April 7, N. S. His Royal Highneſs the Duke arrived here about Seven this Evening, and ſailed for Boiſleduc; and as the Wind is very favourable, we may ſuppoſe he will land To-morrow Morning. The Tranſports and the Yacht from the River Thames are arrived at Helvoet.

Tilbourg April 11, N. S. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland is arrived here from the Hague.

Hague, April 11, N. S. Some Advices mention, that General Schulemburg is march'd, and having found that the Genoeſe had ſpoiled the common Roads, he had made a new one over the Hills; and, by the Aſſiſtance of his Lycanians, had actually got his Cannon upon the Hills which command Genoa.

Hague,

[Price Two-pence.]

Hague, April 11, N. S. By Letters from Paris of the 7th, we have the following Particulars of the Embarkation from the French Ports in the Mediterranean for Genoa. Eleven Tranſports were taken by the Engliſh Men of War, and ſent up to Villa Franca, the 21ſt and 22d of laſt Month, 14 more were run into the Harbour of Monaco, two of which were cloſely purſued by an Engliſh Man of War; three Ships with Spaniſh Troops were got into Agay, and two at Antibes, waiting there for M. de Las Minas's farther Orders. M. Taubin, having with him ten Tranſports with Spaniſh Troops, was ſtill miſſing. Advices from Bruſſels ſay, that the Troops quartered about Ath and Aloſt are to march in a few Days; and that thoſe that are in the Neighbourhood of Courtray are immediately to follow them. The French are putting great Quantities of all the Neceſſaries for a Siege in Boats upon the Canal at Bruſſels: A Train of heavy Artillery, that arrived from Bruſſels the 8th Inſtant, is likewiſe to be embarked. Count Lowendahl is not to return to Namur, as was ſaid; he is to continue with the Marſhal de Saxe. M. de Belleiſle is arrived at Verſailles, and it is ſaid that he is ſoon to return to the Army. Count de Clermont is gone to take upon him the Command of the Corps ſaid to be aſſembled near Sedan. The lateſt Letters from Milan arrived at Paris, and the News from the Mediterranean, increaſed their Fears for Genoa.
